

Sarah
Lawrence
can't be cooped up in the stairwell of Westlands. A free spirit like her needs to get out and explore, and you're just the person to take her places.

Cut out your
"Flat Sarah" and take her with you wherever you go. At work or at play on campus, in the City, or even abroad, help Sarah see how her school— and the world—has evolved!

Document your travels with photos or videos, and share them with us:

Twitter: Use #flatsarah and link to your pics or videos

Facebook: Post to the wall at facebook.com/sarahlawrencecollege

YouTube: Tag your videos with keyword flatsarah

Flickr: Tag your photos with keyword flatsarah

Need more Sarah?
Download her at www.sl.c.edu/flatsarah

The Fine Print

- We might take the best photos and/or videos and use them in other places—on slc.edu, on our Facebook page, our YouTube channel, in our Flickr stream, maybe even in print publications or mailings.
- If we use your submission outside of where you originally posted it, we'll identify you by your first name and last initial only (if we know it), in the interest of privacy.
- Keep your pictures and videos PG, please (she's our namesake, after all! And you know William Van Duzer won't tolerate you sassing his lady).

If this sounds good to you, carry on! If it doesn't, then step away from the Flat Sarah...

Oh, and if you're wondering who "we" are, we're The Office of Communications. Any questions or comments, e-mail us at communications@sarahlawrence.edu.